

A Social Story

There is extra support at the festival

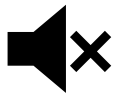

There is an accessible area next to the main stage.

We can tell a steward if we need to use it.

The festival can be loud and busy.

There is a Quiet Zone if we need it. It is in the Methodist Church on Saturday and on Well Lane on Sunday.

If we want to relax outdoors, Chapel Allerton Park is nearby.

We can come back to the festival.

There are accessible toilets at the festival.

We can tell a steward if we need urgent medical help.

There are lots of stewards to help people at the festival.
